Welcome

Welcome to the Basic Education Teacher Survey Response Webinar #1

This event is one of a series of 4 events held in July 2020 as part of the #EmergingEnglish series of events and mini-conferences, in partnership with IATEFL and NAFLE, based on the findings of the British Council China online teacher survey distributed to Chinese English teachers in late-April 2020. It is aimed at supporting the immediate needs of teachers who still currently teach online, or may do so in the future, whilst also supporting a return to classroom teaching and the integration of English teaching practices that are emerging from the experience of teaching during the Covid-19 pandemic.

This webinar series will:

- Share expertise in key areas identified by teachers through the China teacher online survey;
- Promote sharing of experience and insight, both locally and internationally, that can benefit teachers across the country in areas of English language teaching or other subjects;
- Offer suggestions on available UK and British Council resources in related areas to support teachers in their preparation and planning

Speaker Bios

Wang Jue, vice-president of the Primary School Branch of the Shanghai Foreign Language Teaching Council and has 31 years of experience in English teaching and teacher training. She always adheres to the goal of human development when designing teacher training courses and is adept at utilizing online and offline integrated training methods to ensure variety in the training process and the effectiveness of training results.

She has served as a member of the 2nd and 3rd expert groups of the Shanghai Famous Primary English Teacher Base in charge of the planning and implementation of the Shanghai Primary School English Teacher Training Program. She has also previously acted as a judge and commentator for the 7th, 8th and 9th National Primary School English Teaching Contests and is a member of the National Primary and Secondary English Teacher Training Outline Revision Group.

Huang Yongheng is the Deputy Director of the Teaching and Research Office for the Chancheng Education Bureau. She holds a master's degree in English education from Leeds University, and boasts eight-years of teaching experience with 15-years of research experience in primary school English. She was named a teaching expert in the first national competition for English teachers of primary and secondary schools.

Ms. Huang is currently one of the chief teachers in Chancheng, Foshan. She has greatly contributed to primary school English teaching in areas of reading, unit-design and micro-courses. When online courses were mandatory during the recent pandemic, Ms. Huang also created the new concept of “microlearning.”

Vanessa Dong (Dong Liying) is the Project Manager for the British Council English Services. She has worked within the English learning market for more than 10 years, focusing on engaging learners, teachers, parents and professionals through the British Council's global English learning products to help them gain confidence and success in their learning and career pursuits.
