TAEC project objectives

跨国语言融合项目目标

Identify the factors that affect EMI in order to increase transparency and recognition of lecturer skills and qualifications to facilitate learning, employability, and labor mobility.

明确影响全英文课程教学（EMI）的种种因素，以期提升高校教师技能资质的透明度和认可度，从而推动学习交流，改善就业情况，促进劳动力流动。

- 1) Differentiate between the transnational and the local EMI factors across university contexts.
区分影响高校开展EMI教学的跨国因素和本土因素。
- 2) Align a local oral English certification test (TOEPAS) with the Council of Europe's CEFR, which allows for standardization of results and international recognition.
将本地英语口语能力认证考试（TOEPAS）与欧洲委员会制定的欧洲语言共同参考框架（CEFR）进行对标，实现其考试成绩标准化，获得国际认可。

EMI lecturer certification as part of quality assurance

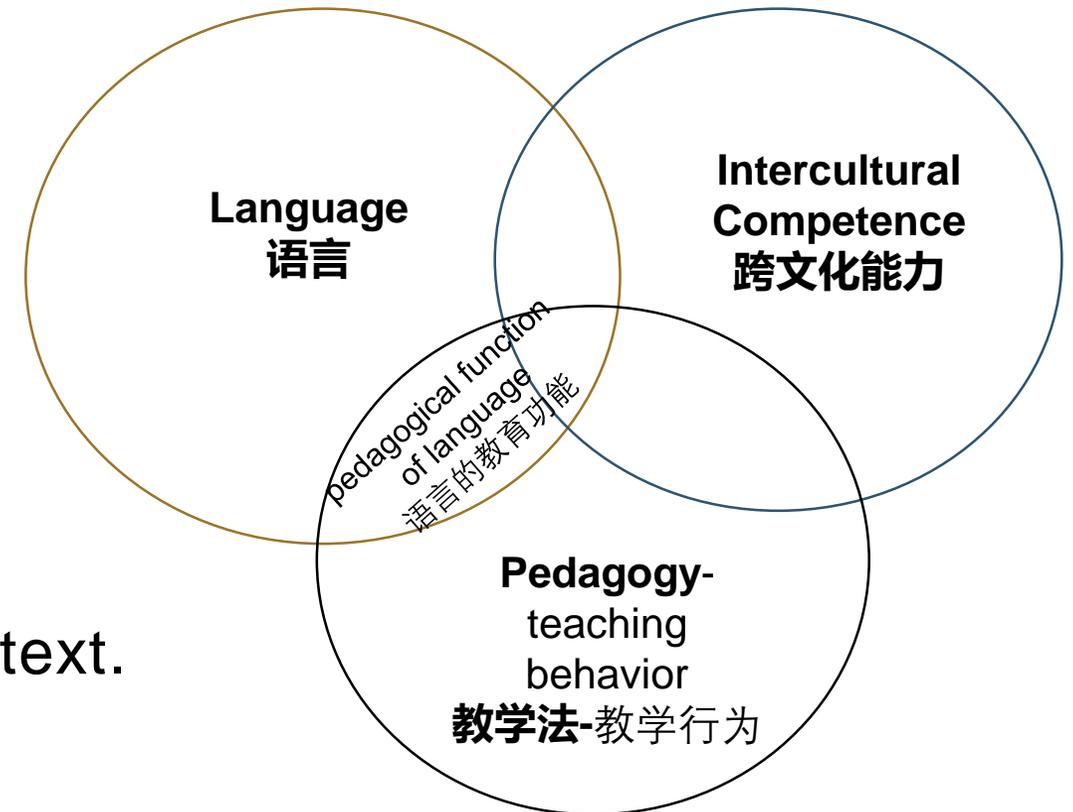

全英文课程授课教师资质认证是质量保障体系的组成部分

- Different approaches to certification are used: TOEFL/IELTS, commercial/local certification courses/programs, or locally-developed assessment procedures.
授课教师资质能力的不同认证方式：托福/雅思考试、商业/本地认证课程/项目、地方性评估流程等。
- Local certification procedures tend to be based on classroom observations or simulated lectures.
地方性认证流程大多采用课堂观摩或模拟课堂这两种形式。
- English proficiency of C1 on the CEFR has been used as a minimum requirement.
授课教师的英语语言水平不得低于欧洲语言共同参考框架所规定的C1等级。

The construct underlining EMI lecturer certification

全英文课程授课教师资质认证架构

- Three focal areas emerge: language, pedagogy, and intercultural competence.

The Test of Oral English Proficiency for Academic Staff (TOEPAS) 教学人员英语口语能力测试

- A certification model that recognizes content lecturers' competences, professional identities, and educational culture
- 该认证模式能够对授课教师的语言能力、职业素养以及教育理念进行考核。
- A certification procedure that is not just a tool for exclusion, but rather an equal opportunity for lecturers to learn
- 该认证流程不仅能筛选出合格的教师，更能为所有教师提供平等的学习机会。

The Test of Oral English Proficiency for Academic Staff (TOEPAS) 教学人员英语口语能力测试

- Method that is based on a simulated lecture to elicit classroom-related language but to standardize the test administration procedures
- 考核方法：采用模拟课堂的形式，这样不仅能促进课堂教学用语的使用，还可使考核流程更加规范。
- Criteria that are focused on language rather than pedagogy (scale 10-60, cutscore 30)
- 考核标准：侧重于语言能力而非教学方法。（评分范围：10分-60分，及格分数线：30分）
- Results that are accompanied by detailed written and oral feedback
- 考核结果：提供详细的口头及书面反馈。

Transnational Alignment of English Competences for University Lecturers

Conclusions 总结

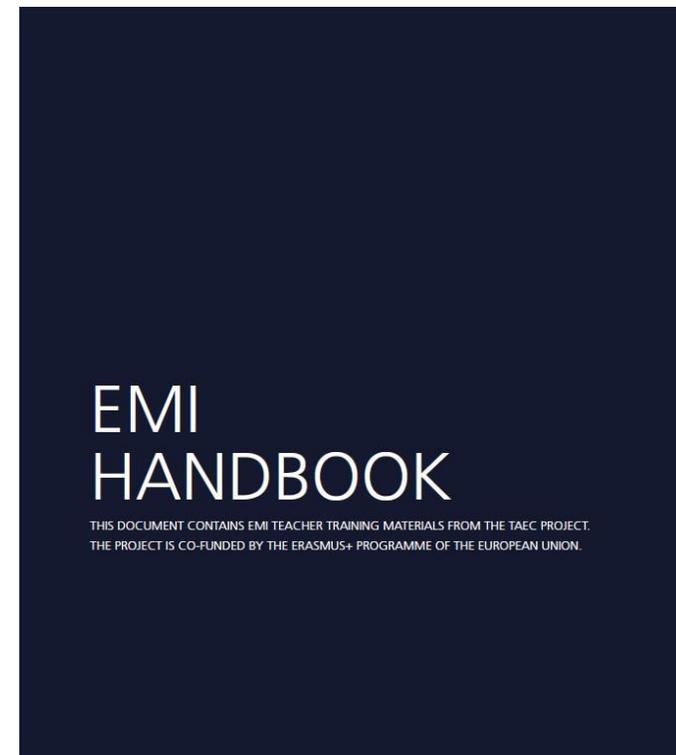

- Lecturers can teach in EMI at a B2+ level on the CEFR because of 教师语言水平达到欧洲语言共同参考框架B2以上即可开展EMI教学，原因如下：
 - Domain-specific terminology and academic language (publish and present in English) 熟悉特定领域的专业术语和学术用语（用英文发表文章、演讲）
 - Years of teaching experience and knowledge of students 拥有多年教学经验，对学生非常了解。

Conclusions 总结

- EMI certification should be used to support rather than exclude lecturers.
全英文授课资质认证应为支持教师而设，而非为筛选教师。
- Why pedagogy and intercultural communication suddenly become important with EMI? Why are only non-native English-speaking EMI teachers responsible to provide evidence of good teaching skills?
为什么教学法和跨文化交流在EMI教学中的作用突然变得重要起来？为什么只有英语为非母语的EMI教师需要证明自己拥有出色的教学能力？
- Training in these areas is crucial regardless of medium of instruction.
无论采用何种教学方式，针对这些方面开展相关教师培训都具有重要意义。

Final thoughts... 反思

- EMI at non-Anglophone universities \neq EMI at Anglophone universities
非英语母语高校的EMI \neq 英语母语高校的EMI
- EMI policies and educational contexts vary \rightarrow quality assurance measures should reflect these variations
不同地区的EMI政策与教育环境各有差异 \rightarrow 质量保障措施应因地制宜，符合当地实际情况

Final thoughts... 反思

- Universities that push top-down implementation of EMI based on Anglophone university norms tend to experience challenges because of the perceived
由于如下误解，那些依据英语母语高校标准自上而下推行EMI教学的高校可能会遇到某些问题和挑战：
 - Threat to lecturers' professional and linguistic identity and status 影响授课教师对其的职业/语言认同感、地位
 - Domain loss – local languages lose disciplinary terms
可能会削弱本土语言的学科地位
